

DFV Privacy Policy

DFV Privacy Policy (DFV-Datenschutzerklärung)

Dear Member of a Frisbee Sports Club,

You likely received this form from your club. Please read it carefully, fill it out, and return it signed as soon as possible.

Why?

The DFV has decided to reorganize its member management system and align it with the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). We've developed a data security concept and appointed a Data Protection Officer to ensure your personal data is handled carefully and in accordance with clear rules.

What data is collected and why?

Your basic data (mandatory):

We need this to carry out national tournaments and manage members. Participation in DFV tournaments is not possible without this info.

- First name, last name, date of birth, gender, club

Contact details (optional but recommended):

To send you information, newsletters, invitations, honors, and to give you access to your membership profile.

Except for the town, these are not made public.

- Email, phone, address

Data Sharing with Third Parties:

Data is only shared in accordance with the law. No data will be shared for advertising. However, it may be beneficial if the DFV confirms your membership for discounts (e.g. on discs, rentals). This is only done with a written agreement from the discount provider and the DFV only responds "yes" or "no" to whether you're a member.

DFV Privacy Policy

Do you agree?

☐ Yes, I agree

☐ No, I do not agree

In some cases (e.g., insurance claims), data might need to be shared with authorities. You will be informed beforehand.

If services are used for membership/tournament management, those providers are contractually obligated to ensure data security.

Publication of Data on the Internet and in Newsletters:

Tournament operation requires public registration and results lists, newsletters, and articles, which may include:

- Name, age category (not date of birth), gender, club/team affiliation, membership status, DFV number, sport type, results, participation details, prizes, licenses, honors, and relevant photos.

If you do not agree with the publication of this information, you should not participate in DFV tournaments.

When your membership ends, your data is blocked. You may request deletion by emailing: dfv-mitglieder@frisbeesportverband.de

Data Protection Statement:

DFV Privacy Policy

Despite precautions, full protection of personal data on the internet cannot be guaranteed. Members accept that:

- Data may be accessible from countries without equivalent data protection laws.
- Confidentiality, integrity, authenticity, and availability of data cannot be fully guaranteed.

Consent:

I acknowledge and agree that the DFV may publish my personal information on:

- frisbeesportverband.de
- discgolf.de
- gto.ec08.de
- ffindr.com
- ultimateliga.de

Place, Date, Signature:

(For minors, signature of guardian required)